1. 次の英文を読んで、下の問いに答えなさい。

One reason for Kunieda's strength is that \bigcirc (a / attitude / believes / is / he / positive / stay / the / to /way) strong. At the age of nine, he lost the ability to move his lower body as a result of disease. He was forced to move around in a wheelchair. In \bigcirc such a situation, many people might have lost hope for the future, but he did not think in a negative way and he enjoyed his life every day. In the sixth grade, his mother told him to try wheelchair tennis at a training center in his hometown. At first he was not so excited about it, but he soon experienced the fun of playing tennis. When he lost \bigcirc (\nearrow as \checkmark for \triangledown at) the first time, he also experienced the frustration of losing. " \bigcirc Everyone who tries to be a global athlete hates to lose," he said in an interview. "But I especially hate to lose."
